WESTERN DAY

AT FAITH ACADEMY

The elementary and early education students had a blast celebrating western day on Wednesday morning, just before their extended Austin County Fair break. It was a day filled with buckles, boots, and hats — truly a rootin', tootin' grand ol' time, made possible by the wonderful collaboration of staff, parents, and volunteers.

EEC students kicked off the festivities with a hayride and a fun barrel train ride around the campus, waving at everyone they passed. They had their own pumpkin patch and enjoyed numerous games and snacks throughout the day. The elementary students got a chance to pan for gold up on the hill and practice their roping skills, preparing for the next cattle gathering. One of the day's highlights was the mule wagon ride, which took them across rough open terrain to the chuck wagon. There, they watched biscuits being made and tasted, providing an exciting glimpse into the past of cooking under the stars. Ms. Guardia led the eager pioneers in a Land Rush, where they raced to stake their claim for supplies and land. The activities continued with Wagon Wheel Roll, a lively competition to see who could roll their wagon wheel the fastest and farthest. "Snake in My Boot" wrapped up the outdoor fun, as students tossed snakes into their boots with much gusto. After a group photo by the chuck wagon and a refreshing stop at the watering hole, everyone headed inside to boot, scoot, and boogie, learning some fun line dances. It was a footloose fancy-free time that would have made Cotton Eyed Joe want to join in! As the day wound down, everyone gathered around a smokeless fire where the ranch manager entertained them with tales and recited an original poem, ensuring the fun continued with lots of rhyming and treats. It was a memorable day filled with laughter, learning, and community spirit!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Dear Faith Family,

The following link takes you to a fun parenting assessment tool provided by Focus on the Family. The assessment, which takes just 5-8 minutes, will give you an honest look at your unique strengths, plus some areas that could use some help. The assessment delves into adaptability, respect, intentionality, love, boundaries, grace/forgiveness and gratitude.

<https://www.focusonthefamily.com/parenting/the-7-traits-of-effective-parenting/>

What are the 7 Traits of Effective Parenting?

It's a simple framework of seven powerful traits that will help you grow in your parenting journey, and be the most effective parent you can be. As you grow in these seven traits, you can impart these same traits to your kids.

The seven traits of effective parenting are well researched, based on the foundations provided through Scripture, enriched by years of application in family counseling settings, as well as the great research surrounding the authoritative style of parenting.

Praying that together, we can effectively share the Gospel of Christ in our homes and communities!

Amy Catlett, Chaplain

When we talk about The Life, we are talking about a Person—Jesus Christ, God Himself—offering to exchange who we are apart from Him for a new identity as His sons and daughters, infused with His life, made partakers of His nature, tracing our heritage to Him, and blessed with His indwelling presence. The Apostle Paul reminds us that spiritual truth is not an intellectual acquisition, but rather something that must be apprehended by the power of the Holy Spirit.

A Faith Academy Parent Partnership Presentation

A poster for a pumpkin parade. The background is light pink with a yellow border. It features several orange pumpkins of various sizes, some hanging from thin black lines. There are also several white, fluffy clouds scattered across the background. The title 'PUMPKIN PARADE' is written in large, bold, orange-outlined letters. Below the title, the date and time 'October 30th from 9am-10am' are written in a black, handwritten-style font. At the bottom, there is a yellow rounded rectangle containing text in a black, handwritten-style font.

PUMPKIN PARADE

What's a bull's favorite school subject? Cow-culus! And at Sandy Creek Ranch, things really added up for the Faith Academy sophomores. The 10th graders were given a great field trip experience and learned many things. They were greeted with donuts and kolaches for breakfast, and then the students got to look at a variety of tools that the ranchers use on cattle and horses. The group then watched a farrier shoe a horse as he talked about the process of shoeing and how he became a farrier. The students enjoyed listening because they knew it would be a great skill to have. Next, they hopped on the back of a trailer and went out on a hayride. During the hayride, they saw all of Sandy Creek's horses, the hydroponic process of growing barley, and a traditional garden. Once they returned, the sophomores were allowed to examine Sandy Creek's hay balers and sit inside their tractor. Lunch came around and hamburgers were served, made from the ranch's own beef cattle. They were well fed and gave the burgers a high rating. After the food settled, the sophomores got to examine the cattle chute, and then each were given an opportunity to freeze brand the cattle. All who branded enjoyed it, and some had the opportunity to do it again. Afterward, the students got to look at bull sperm under a microscope to determine if the bull was good for reproduction. They were then allowed to etch their own designs on an ear tag and take it home. The hosts ended the tour by giving away five Sandy Creek hats to the students who answered the ranchers' questions correctly. The sophomores went home talking about their favorite parts of the trip. We would like to thank Quintes Stark and the other ranchers at Sandy Creek Ranch for giving these sophomores a great experience!

Quick Tip for Multiple Students Sign-out & Pick-up

Sign-out procedure for students

We ask for parents to sign out their children in their respective buildings. For example, if you have an EEC student and an elementary student, you will need to sign out the elementary student at the elementary building and the EEC student at the EEC building.

Thank you for your cooperation!

DID YOU KNOW?

NOW there is an easy way to report students' tardiness or absence right from the parent's cell phone. Send a text message to 979-270-1918...Include the student first & last name, grade and reason for absence.

It's that easy!
