MRS. CIERRA HINES-HACKER'S 10TH GRADE FIELD TRIP.....

Article written by Joshua Hardy / Group photo on FYI Cover page

What's a bull's favorite school subject? Cow-culus! And at Sandy Creek Ranch, things really added up for the Faith Academy sophomores. The 10th graders were given a great field trip experience and learned many things. They were greeted with donuts and kolaches for breakfast, and then the students got to look at a variety of tools that the ranchers use on cattle and horses. The group then watched a farrier shoe a horse as he talked about the process of shoeing and how he became a farrier. The students enjoyed listening because they knew it would be a great skill to have. Next, they hopped on the back of a trailer and went out on a hayride. During the hayride, they saw all of Sandy Creek's horses, the hydroponic process of growing barley, and a traditional garden. Once they returned, the sophomores were allowed to examine Sandy Creek's hay balers and sit inside their tractor. Lunch came around and hamburgers were served, made from the ranch's own beef cattle. They were well fed and gave the burgers a high rating. After the food settled, the sophomores got to examine the cattle chute, and then each were given an opportunity to freeze brand the cattle. All who branded enjoyed it, and some had the opportunity to do it again. Afterward, the students got to look at bull sperm under a microscope to determine if the bull was good for reproduction. They were then allowed to etch their own designs on an ear tag and take it home. The hosts ended the tour by giving away five Sandy Creek hats to the students who answered the ranchers' questions correctly. The sophomores went home talking about their favorite parts of the trip. We would like to thank Quintes Stark and the other ranchers at Sandy Creek Ranch for giving these sophomores a great experience!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Dear Faith Family,

As we settle into the school year, the newness and fun may be wearing off and the “process” of school might be becoming laborious. Life can prove difficult; family, blended family, extended family, work, health or financial struggles-or both. Does it ever feel like your life will not settle down? If you have a minute, read Psalm 13:1-6 and use the suggestions David gives when finding himself in times of crisis.

Keep Going
Psalm 13:1-6
Nicky Gumbel

David’s example suggests four things that you should continue to do during difficult times:

1. Keep praying

David continues to cry out to God, ‘Look on me and answer, O Lord my God. Give light to my eyes’ (v.3). He pours out his heart to God. Don’t give up praying even when God seems far away.

2. Keep trusting

‘But I trust in your unfailing love’ (v.5a). ‘I’ve thrown myself headlong into your arms’ (v.5a, MSG). It is relatively easy to have faith when things are going well, but the test of faith is when things do not appear to be going well.

3. Keep rejoicing

He does not rejoice in the trials, but in God’s salvation. He says, ‘my heart rejoices in your salvation’ (v.5b). ‘I’m celebrating your rescue’ (v.5b, MSG).

4. Keep worshipping

In spite of everything he has been through, David is able to see the goodness of God: ‘I will sing to the Lord, for he has been good to me’ (v.6). He remembers all that God has done for him.

As you begin to praise and worship God, it brings perspective to your problems. Sometimes, I find it helpful to look back on my life and thank the Lord for bringing me through so many of my own personal struggles, disappointments and bereavements, and to remember how, through it all, ‘he has been good to me’ (v.6).

Lord, I worship you today. Thank you for your goodness to me. For all the battles ahead, I trust in your unfailing love.

Praying that the God of Peace be in all the pieces of your life,
Amy Catlett, Chaplain

When we talk about The Life, we are talking about a Person—Jesus Christ, God Himself—offering to exchange who we are apart from Him for a new identity as His sons and daughters, infused with His life, made partakers of His nature, tracing our heritage to Him, and blessed with His indwelling presence. The Apostle Paul reminds us that spiritual truth is not an intellectual acquisition, but rather something that must be apprehended by the power of the Holy Spirit.
